Pablo Atchugarry founded the Atchugarry Foundation in 2007 with the intention of making art accessible to everyone. Known as one of Uruguay's most famous artists for his work with marble, Pablo has dedicated great efforts to promote Uruguay in the world of contemporary art. In January 2022, he inaugurated the MACA museum, an incredible structure considered a work of art in itself, which houses permanent and temporary exhibitions. The tour includes a private visit to his personal studio and a guided tour of the premises with special access exclusive to art specialists.
